A half pound is all that is required for the washing of all that ten gallons of suds will soak, and dispensing entirely with boiling, which no other preparation PRETENDS to do, and the use of the WASHING MACHINE and RUBBING BOARD, thereby saving the expense of fires and the most severe labors of the washing day, and also the entire wear and tear of the Clothing (to say nothing of the hands,) in washing, which is frequently the most destructive to which clothing is subjected.

The Suds after the wash, is the best article for the cleansing of painted surfaces, wood work, oil cloth, carpets, iron railing, &c, that many ladies in this city who have tried it, ever saw.

MILWAUKEE:

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, JAN. 23.

No Mails.—We have had no mails east of Chicago for the last three days. The Chicago papers say there is a very large mail at Michigan City, but that there is so much snow on the track that the cars can't come through. We suppose the Postmaster General did not make the snow fall, so there is no chance to blow him up this time. We shall have to wait patiently for a thaw or something else.

The late Woman's Rights Convention.

From the California Pacific

A pretty large number of women in the Eastern States imagine themselves oppressed, aggrieved and down-trodden by mankind!—They have held some conventions and have given public expression to their many grievances. Their meetings are said to have been conducted (as far, of course, as we should have expected they would be,) with great dignity and decorum.

In the hurry and excitement of our distant home, we cannot indulge in the publication of extracts from their many spirited speeches, but must content ourselves with expressing our opinion as to the remedy which would at once cure the whole difficulty. A little while ago we published in the Pacific, a short extract from a letter writen by a lady, East, saying that women there were too plenty.—They are in each other's way. The population is not well mated. Too much for the younger portion of the community. And very likely the older portion have too little to do in the outward world, and too much time for imagining evils.

A perfect cure for all this is emigration to a new and growing State! Take California for instance. Here, instead of being so numerous as to be in each other's way, there are not half women enough. The State has been and is, suffering for the want of women—women good and true, such as abound in family clusters, East, to make our homes happy and our society refined and improving! Here they are treated so well—are so much deferred to—and find their rights so carefully recognized that we never hear a word about a "convention" to devise measures to redress wrongs. Here is so much life—so much activity—so much progress that no motive is supplied, or time left for gentle dreamings!

We have heard something about the possibility of establishing some kind of an express from the East, hither, by which ladies might be properly and safely transported. The fact is, many young men here would be glad beyond expression to find a companion meet for them, and are in very prosperous circumstances, but to leave their business for three or 4 months, would ruin it; and if they went home to find such a companion, they would return to nothing, their business would have gone out of mind and been forgotten.

Now if they should hold a convention and supply all that might be necessary to bring away half the young women in New England to California there would be some sense in it. The thing once accomplished, and, our word for it, there wo'd be no convention in Worcester, or in Akron, for twenty years, and California—her gold would then be worth something. Her soil would then be blessed with the name of home—her vices would in a great measure vanish, and her happiness would abound.

Such would be our remedy for the ills complained of by the aforesaid conventions, East, and those that might really be urged by the proposed convention West.

We don't think this plan will work. If the California beaux, catch the yankee girls, by sending word, that they would come after them, if they were not so busy after something else, the girls are different from any we know. We always supposed that before they would "leave father and mother," for any man, they would like to know that he would leave something for them. And we would give more for the chance of the young fellow, who without a dollar in his pocket, goes to see a girl and makes her think, that for her, he would leave a hundred gold mines, if he had them,—than for the chance of the one who has a hundred, and sends her word that if she will come to him, he will gladly take her for a wife.

☞ Senator Wakely, of Walworth county, and J. A. Hadley, of the Watertown Chronicle, are in town.

The Message.—With the single exception of the Advertiser, of this city, the Democratic press of the State have treated the Message of the Governor with that fairness and candor due to an honorable opponent. Though they dissent from some of his political views, they do not therefore deem it necessary to abuse him personally, or to disparage his abilities. The following, from the Madison Argus, is a fair specimen of the manner in which the majority of the press of that party have received the first Whig Message:

"In point of style, we regard it as ably written, and in matter plain spoken and direct; and had some things been included, that are omitted, and some points left out, that are of no account save as expressions of individual opinion, it would have more fully met our ideas of what such a document should be.

* * * "It is easier to grumble at a message, than to write one; and as this was produced in a week's time, by a newly-installed officer, we are not disposed to be censorious. That it speaks the opinion of its author, ought not to be considered as very remarkable; or if it contains defects of compositions, the circumstances ought to be taken into account in explanation. As a political opponent, we shall not hesitate to approve what we deem right in the new Governor, any more than we would to condemn what we believed wrong; and such should be the standard of criticism by the democratic press."

☞ The effect of Judge Hubbell's Injunction on the business of the State Treasury amounts to nothing, because no one regards so illegal, a proceeding as of any account.—Even the boys laugh at what they call "Hubbell's capers." When the attachment issues against the Governor and the State Treasurer, the Legislature will teach him what is the law for Judicial intermeddling.—Wisconsin.

MADISON, Wednesday, Jan. 21.

Assembly.—10 A. M. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Snow. Honorables and officers prayed for, but reporters and outsiders omitted.

The use of the Assembly Chamber was granted for the Concert of the Sacred Music Society, on Tuesday evening next.

Several numerously signed petitions in favor of the Maine Temperance Law, were presented and referred.

The newspaper publishers of Madison memorialized the Legislature to furnish them with reports. Referred to a select committee—Messrs. Botkin, Hoyt and Peak.

Mr. Graham introduced a bill to authorize banking. Read twice and ordered printed.

Mr. Peak gave notice of a bill to exempt farms and farming lands from taxation.

Mr. Hoyt offered a resolution directing issue of certificates as compensation for milenge. Passed.

Mr. Hackett gave notice of bills, to incorporate the Madison and Beloit Railroad Co., and to organize the 7th Judicial Circuit. Read twice.

Mr. Cate offered a bill to make married women capable of sueing and being sued.

Assembly went into committee of the whole, Mr. Patch in the Chair. And after considering the question of printing the reports of the Heads of Departments and of the Commissioners of Public Works, the committee recommended such printing, and the Assembly concurred in the recommendation.

A bill to authorize the village of Manitowoc to borrow money to construct a harbor. Read twice.

Assembly appointed a select joint committee—Messrs. Peak, Root and Moore—on their part, in concurrence with the Senate, on the Fox and Wiscon-in River Improvement.

Mr. Cain, of Milwaukee, presented the following petition from the publishers of the Free Democrat and Sentinel, of Milwaukee:

To the Honorable Senate and Assembly of the State of Wisconsin:

The undersigned, publishers of newspapers in Milwaukee, respectfully represent, that the Legislature of Wisconsin was not constituted for the especial benefit of the newspaper proprietors of Madison, and that neither the Legislature nor its constituents are under any constitutional or moral obligation to sustain four daily papers at the Capital,—that we think the price of One Dollar too low for a daily paper during the session of the Legislature, provided the session should be a long one,—that we provide our own Reporters, and do not ask the State to pay them; but if the Legislature furnishes reports, or provides reporters for the Madison papers, we ask, in justice, that it will pass the same order for the benefit of the Milwaukee papers, whose publishers have provided reporters for this Legislature. And while we do not wish to be considered pensioners of the State, we ask that "equal and exact justice" shall be done to all.

S. M. BOOTH,
Publisher Milwaukee Free Democrat.
RUFUS KING & CO.,
Publishers of the Milwaukee Sentinel.

The petition was referred to the committee raised on the memorial of the Madison printers.

The Senate non-concurred in the Assembly's amendment to appoint a committee of 19 on the State apportionment. Assembly discussed the question, and refused to recede.

Afternoon Session.—On motion of Mr. Barber, the rules were suspended, and a bill to extend the time for the collection of taxes in the town of Delavan, was read, and passed without engrossment.

Motion to adjourn, lost.

A bill to change the name of Gunnel Gunnelson, read twice, and a motion to print 20 copies of the bill in the Norwegian language, indefinitely postponed. Adj'd.

The committee on the petitions of the different papers came in just after the Assembly adjourned. We understand they will report in favor of paying two reporters for the Madison papers, and one reporter from Milwaukee. How the Legislature is to designate what papers the reporters shall be taken from, we cannot predict. But we shall see when the Assembly comes to act on the proposition. There will be lively times before the session closes.

Senate.—Various bills, &c., introduced, read, referred, &c., but no final action. Senate refuses to concur in the Assembly's amendment to appoint a committee of 18 on apportionment.

The charter of the Rock River Valley Railroad discussed and various amendments made to it.

A bill to locate the county seat of Marquette county, read twice. Several bills to lay out State roads, read twice.

Message from Assembly taken up. Bill to extend the time for collecting taxes in Delavan read twice, but the Senate refused to suspend the rules to pass it, by 9 ayes to 7 noes.

The Senate declined to agree with the Assembly in regard to the committee on apportionment, and asked a committee of conference on the disagreeing vote. Messrs. West, Reed and Conkey were appointed such committee on the part of the Senate.

The Senate, viva voce, elected E. B. Dean, the "Model Senator," President pro tem. of the Senate, by 10 out of 16 votes. Adj'd.

CITY MATTERS.

The Festival.

"And all went merry as a marriage bell!"

Not exactly went, but will go to-night at the Odd Fellow's Festival, which we doubt not, will be one of those happy, social gatherings which are not only so pleasant to attend but pleasant to remember, long afterwards.

Mr. Vliet's Communication.—We publish Mr. Vliet's communication contained in this morning's Sentinel, not only because it relates to a matter, which has excited considerable attention, because of the justness and truth of his views concerning the ruinous system of orders, which has so long swindled the laborers, and enriched the speculators of this City.

Fire.—About 8 o'clock, last night, a fire broke out in a house near the corner of Milwaukee and Detroit sts., owned by Mrs. Ryan, and occupied by Mrs. Barry. The building was entirely consumed, but the furniture was mostly saved. The fire originated from the chimney. The house was insured for $250.

United States Court.—The case of Daniel Whitney vs. H. S. Anable, and Samuel Laing, was this morning decided by the Jury in favor of the defendants.

The case of Charles B. Tatham vs. Jacob Beibrich is concluded and the Judge has charged the Jury, but a decision had not been rendered up to 2 o'clock P. M.

For the Free Democrat.

The Superintendents of the Poor.

To Messrs. H. C. Bevenng, Ch'n.
H. G. Post, Sec'y.:

Sirs:—Your note, containing resolutions adopted by a meeting on Saturday last, has just come to hand. With the sentiments therein contained with reference to the appointment of a German Superintendent of the Poor, I fully concur. I urged the necessity of the matter upon members of the Board, in private conversation as well as public, during the session of the Board, and in the several ballotings I voted for Mr. A. C. Williams, the efficient German Superintendent of last year, but a majority of the Board saw fit to vote otherwise.

That it would be advisable to appoint a German physician to give medical attendance to the wants of German paupers who cannot speak English, all will agree, and that the Superintendents, who have full power in the case, will make such an appointment, I have no doubt.

The evils complained of by your meeting as many others, grow out of the adoption of an incorrect system. When the poor were supported under the old town system, no complaints were heard; but while the present county system continues, complaints will not cease. The wants of the poor should be attended to by the Aldermen of, and at the expense of the Ward in which they reside. For they being acquainted with their neighbors and constituents, can best guard against impositions, and most conveniently attend to the wants of their unfortunate neighbors. Further—each Ward should take care of its own poor, for the reason that it is to a great extent responsible for the pauperism created within its limits. If a Ward adopts a vicious system of finances, and by that means creates paupers, it should maintain them; while if another Ward pursues a just, equitable and politic course, and by that means places its poor in good circumstances, it should enjoy the benefits of that course, and not be burthened with the support of the paupers of another Ward, created by vicious and impolitic measures, over which it has no control.

The people of each Ward constitute a family of which the Aldermen are the fathers.—If the department of the fathers in the discharge of their official duties is correct, frugal and politic, the family will be in a prosperous condition; if vicious, reckless and impolitic, they will become paupers.

The mass of pauperism grows out of, and continues in consequence of the continuance of the execrable order system, adopted by all the Wards of the City. Laborers who work for the City receive orders for their pay, which are worth only from 60 to 90 cents per dollar—and thus they are defrauded out of from 10 to 40 per cent of their earnings. The wages of the laborer are barely sufficient for his support, if he receives cash; and consequently, if he has no other resources, he is reduced to from ten to forty per cent below a living point. Fortunate, indeed, is the poor laborer who finds himself in a Ward where he is only ten per cent below par. City Fathers should look to this. They can, by a proper exercise of their power, reduce pauperism to such an extent, that it will be confined to those who are physically, or mentally incapacitated, to take care of themselves under favorable circumstances.

This can never be done under the present County system, for that offers a reward for pauperism.

The new City Charter contains nothing with reference to the support of paupers, and in that particular, as well as others, is objectionable.

The Common Council has no such power as your meeting seems to suppose. The Legislature is the only body competent to remedy the evils of which you complain, for those evils do not arise so much from the "management" of the system, as from the system itself, of which they are a concomitant part, and can only be remedied by a radical change of the whole system.

Humanity, justice and economy require that each Ward of the City, and each Town in the County, shall take care of its own poor, and that the County have nothing to do with paupers. The Legislature can change the system at once, and are consequently the body to which application should be made. I have no doubt that if your meeting will reassemble at an early day, and take the matter vigorously in hand, they can, during the present session of the Legislature, procure the required change; thus in a very short period of time ridding themselves of those "censurable and condemnable" evils of which complaint is made, and which, if not thus disposed of, must remain for at least one year.

If your friends decide to adopt that course, or any other tending to remedy the evils of which they complain, and the many others incident to the expensive and unwise County system, they will meet with the hearty co-operation of

Your humble servant,
JESPER VLIET,
Chairman of the Board.

January 20, 52.

High Legal Decision on the Liquor Traffic.—There are those desiring to see the power of the liquor traffic cut short, who, at the same time, are not wholly clear as to the extent to which that traffic may be restricted by law. The following written opinions of members of the United States Supreme Court—the highest judicial authority known among us—as to the power of the several States to control the sale of intoxicating liquors within their limits, settle this question. It will be seen that the decision embraces all the Judges of the Court, including the Chief Justice:

Chief Justice Taney said, "If any State deems the retail and internal traffic in ardent spirits injurious to its citizens, I see nothing in the constitution to prevent it from prohibiting it altogether."

Mr. Justice McLean said, "No person can introduce into a community a malignant disease, or anything which contaminates its morals or endangers its safety."

Mr. Justice Catron said, "If the State has the power of restraint by licenses to any extent, she has the discretionary power to judge of its limits, and may go to the length of prohibiting sales altogether."

Mr. Justice Daniel said of imports that are cleared of all control of the government. "They are like all other property of the citizen, whether owned by the importer or his vendee, or may have been purchased by hogsheads, casks or bottles." In answering the argument that the importer purchases the right to sell when he pays duties to government, Mr. Daniel continues to say, "No such right is purchased by the importer; he cannot purchase from the government that which it could not insure to him, a sale independently of the laws and policy of the State."

And Mr. Justice Grier said, "It is not necessary to array the appalling statistics of misery, pauperism and crime, which have their origin in the use and abuse of ardent spirits.—The police power, which is exclusively in the streets, is alone competent to the correction of these great evils, and all measures of restraint or prohibition necessary to effect the purpose, are within the scope of that authority."

Land Monopoly.—The suggestions of Gov. Farwell in relation to the grant of government lands to incorporated companies to aid in works of internal improvement, are founded in considerate wisdom. The accumulation of lands in the hands of speculators, is an evil which has retarded the prosperity or our State more than any other. The lands thus held draw their increase in value directly from the labor of the settler, in improving the country and making them available, and operates as an onerous and unjust tax upon the labor of the country, for the benefit of capital, precisely like the protective tariff, which the Governor recommends. It may be argued that the lands will be sold immediately, at government price, for the means necessary to carry on the work. This may be or may not be, depending entirely upon the interest or caprice of the stock-holder.

It gives a control, an absolute power to individuals over the public domain which should exist only in the government, to be dispensed upon equal and equitable principles without favor or wrong to any. Appropriations of a general character to actual settlers, we think would add much more to the general prosperity of the State, than the donations proposed to companies. The Governor's view of this subject is the democratic one and we honor him for expressing it fearlessly.—Madison Democrat.

A Chance for War!

Washington, Jan. 14.

Mr. Webster is preparing a response to a recent letter of Hulseman, which was drawn forth by Mr. Webster's speech at the Kossuth dinner; its tenor has not transpired, but it is not impossible that the Austrian Charge may have his passports tendered him.

There is something extraordinary going on in the Navy Department; it is actively engaged in ordering vessels to prepare for sea, and collecting supplies and munitions of war. Among other things, the Mediterranean squadron is to be strengthened by two additional vessels.

Fire.—At about one o'clock on Sunday morning last, the quietude of our village was disturbed by the cry of Fire! The flames were ascertained to proceed from the Merchant's Hotel, one of the largest and most popular Hotels in town, kept by A. Fields Smith, Esq. Owing to the severity of the weather, the mercury standing 25 degrees down, our engine could not be made available, and consequently nothing could be done to stay the progres of the devouring element, and soon the "Merchant's," which was an ornament to our village was a heap of smouldering ruins. One of the inmates of the house, a lady, we believe, was only rescued from a fatful death by the gallantry and intrepidity of one of the young men of our village, Erastus Reed, Esq. The fire is supposed to have originated from a chimney in the upper part of the building. We understand that the house and furniture were fully insured.—Sheboygan Jour.

Flogging in the Navy.—Senator Stockton has made a most powerful speech against the barbarous practice, now happily abolished, but sought to be revived, of flogging in the naval service. Every friend of humanity, and every man who believes that sailors are human beings, and can be controlled by kindness and moral power, owes a debt of gratitude to Senator Stockton. It may be regarded as an established fact, that all officers in command in our naval service, who can not govern those under them by reason, mildness and a moral power, and such modes of punishment as humanity will justify, are unfit to command. No matter how brave they may be, if they lack this power of government they are essentially deficient in one of the most important qualifications of a good naval officer.

The question came up on the motion of Senator Gwinn, of California, calling for a petition laying on the table praying for the restoration of flogging in the navy. The speech of Senator Stockton will, we think, make the petitioners look small, or at least feel so, if they have hearts in their bosoms. There is one other place from which we wish to see flogging banished—that is the school room. That sacred place for the cultivation of the intellect and moral faculties is often degraded by the brutal modes of punishment. What can be more disgusting than to step into a school room and witness an instructor of youth in a violent passion, beating some little pupil to make him or her more obedient or moral; and this brutality is often exorcised in presence of a whole school, thus debasing the hearts and morals of all present.—Buffalo Republic.

Sam and Seth were talking about fencing, the art of self defence, and the like. Sam remarked that he had seen a rail fence.—"Pooh!" said Seth, "that's nothing—I've seen a hat box."

Grand Gulf, Jan. 14.

Terrible Steamboat Explosion.—About 1 o'clock, this morning, the steamboat George Washington, on her way from Cincinnati to New Orleans, when a short distance above this place, exploded, after which she took fire and was entirely consumed.—Capt. Irvine was badly scalded, and the first clerk, Carroll, was killed. Many that were not killed by the explosion, were afterwards burned. Among the missing were Mr. Carroll, first clerk, a Mr. James Treat, Philip Supner, the first cook, a fireman, six deck hands and six deck passengers, names not known, all supposed to have been burnt with the boat, also, the carpenter and a Mr. Kendall, a passenger from Kentucky, was so badly scalded as to cause immediate death after reaching shore.

Those saved and scalded are Capt. Irvine, badly; Mr. Pearce, second clerk, do; Daniel Clemens, engineer, do; M. Dunn, second mate will recover; the third engineer, Moore, and a watchman, do; James Moore, the first mate, uninjured; C. D. Clemens, do; C. Wheeler, second Cook, not much injured. The books and papers of the boat were lost. She had two barges in tow loaded with stock and freight, both were burned.

More Heavy Hogs.—Mr. Joseph Spaulding of Harmony killed four hogs last week, the aggregate weight of which was 2000 pounds. They were 18 months old at the time of killing.—Janesville Gaz.

A Stinger.—The weather on Monday morning last was the coldest ever known since the settlement of this place. At sunrise the thermometer stood at 25 degress below zero. —Ib.

Singular Death.—A little son of Mr. G W. Warren, of this village, aged about 4 years, came to his death on Sunday morning last, from a very singular circumstance. It appears that on Friday he had been out in the cold, and coming in, noticed the steam issuing from a tea kettle of boiling water on the stove. Innocently imagining that it would be a good way to warm himself, he allowed the steam to come in contact with his face, at the same time drawing into his lungs a full inspiration of the heated vapor. The effect was such as to produce his death on Sunday morning.—Danville Herald.

FRIDAY.....JANUARY 23.

State Agricultural Society.

MADISON, Jan. 21st, '52.

The State Agricultrual Society met in the Senate Chamber, which had previously been tendered to them by the Senate, at 7 o'clock, P. M. The President being absent, Hon. H. M. Billings, of Iowa, Vice President, took the Chair, assisted by Hon. Wm. F. Tompkins, of Rock. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, reports of the State Fair, of the Treasurer, Secretary, and of the Executive Committee, were presented, and read by Albert C. Ingham, Esq., Secretary of the Society.

The Society then proceeded to the election of officers, for the ensuing year, Messrs. Woodle, of Rock, and Dean, of Dane, having been appointed tellers, by the Chair.—Sixty-one votes were cast for President, of which fifty-eight were given for Hon. H. M. Billings, of Iowa, who was declared duly elected President, for the ensuing year. He made a neat speech, in acknowledgement of the honor conferred, and pledged himself to devote his undivided attention, to the interests of the Society, for the ensuing year.

Hon. Andrew Palmer, of Rock, moved to elect the remaining officers viva voce, which was carried. S. M. Booth nominated N. B. Clapp, Esq., of Kenosha, Vice President for the 1st Congressional District; carried. Isaac Woodle, of Rock, nominated Orim Densmore, Esq., of Rock, as Vice President for the 2d Cong'l Dist.; carried. Hon. Thos. R. Mott, of Jefferson, nominated Martin Webster, of Dodge, as Vice President for the 3rd Cong'l Dist.: carried.

Albert C. Ingham, Esq., of Dane, was elected Recording Secretary, and Corresponding Secretary, by acclamation. Hon. Simeon Mills, of Dane, Treasurer, do.; Messrs. Warren Chase, of Fond du Lac, Eliab B. Dean, J., of Dane, S. S. Daggett, of Milwaukee, J. D. Merritt, of Grant, and H. B. Hawley, of Jefferson, were elected additional members of the Executive Committee.

A deserved resolution of thanks was unanimously passed to Albert C. Ingham, Esq., for the efficient and able manner in which he had discharged the duties of Secretary for the past year.

On motion of Hon. Andrew Palmer, the Society authorized the Secretary to procure the publication of the transactions for the year 1851.

The Society then adjourned.

Mr. Ingham deserves great credit for his exertion, in behalf of the Society, during the past year, and to his efforts, more than to any other individual, the present prosperous state of the Society is due. We were glad to see that his services were so heartily appreciated by the Society.

S. M. B.

Both Sides of the Question.

To the Editor of the Free Democrat:

SIR: In the "Journal" of Saturday last, appeared the following paragraph, unacknowledged and uncommented on:

"Infidelity is the effusion of weak minds, and the resource of guilty ones. Like the simoom of the desert, it withers everything within its reach, and as soon as it has prostrated the morality of the individual, it invades the civil rights of society."

Which has been copied from the address of Mr. G. J. Holyoake, at the grave of the late Mrs. Emma Martin, near London, wherein he brings in juxtaposition two passages from her writings, at two remarkable periods of her life. The above was written and published, in the year 1835, in the "Bristol Literary Magazine," which she edited. The "Journal" would have shown a little more honesty, had it added the sequel, which is as follows:

"In 1844, in the seventh of her Weekly Addresses to the Inhabitants of London, of which it was the 36,000th issued, she wrote: 'When Christianity arose, it gathered to its standard the polished Greek, the restless Roman, the barbarous Saxon, but it was suited only to the age in which it grew. It had anathemas for the bitter-hearted to hurl at those they chose to designate "God's enemies." It had promises for the hopeful, cautions for the prudent, charity for the good. It was all things to all men. It became the grand leader—of the ascetic to the convent, of the chivalrous to the Crusade, of the cruel to the Star Chamber, of the scholar to the midnight cell, there to feed on knowledge, but not to impart it.—But at last its contentional doctrines bade men look elsewhere for peace—for some less equivocal morality, some clearer doctrines, some surer truth.' In this belief she lived, worked, and taught, and in this belief she died."

Yours, &c., I.

[We publish the above by request, but do not choose to let our readers have it, without a word or two of comment. From the conclusion at which Mrs. Martin arrives, we entirely dissent. We look upon Christianity—the teachings of Christ himself—as pre-eminently the agency which will, in time, prove itself—what its Giver intended it to be—a gospel of Peace, living in the hearts, and governing the conduct, of men, in their relations to each other. Men need not look elsewhere for better morality, for clearer doctrines, or for surer truth. Only let them practice more, and preach less, and the peace desired will follow. But we don't know but we, too, might "look elsewhere for peace," did we—like our pro-slavery churches and divines, and like the Fillmore "Journal" of this city—believe in the Christianity of Man-Stealing, Slave-Catching, and Woman-Whipping! Infidelity is the legitimate offspring of such Christianity.—Ed.'s Sub.]

Newly Organized.—The Court of Waushara County—Judge Walker presiding—was organized at Sacramento on the 1st inst.—The newly elected county officers were mostly present.—Marquette Mercury.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

Arrival of the Union and El Dorado, with $1,500,000 in Gold.

New York, Jan. 16.

Steamer Union, from Chagres, via Jamaica, arrived this morning. She brings one hundred and eighty-six passengers. Nothing new either from Jamaica or California.

The steamer El Dorado, from Chagres, with dates to the 4th inst., arrived at midnight, with California mails to the 16th, and with $1,082,507 on freight, and $900,000 in the hands of passengers.

She steamers Panama and Republic had arrived at Panama.

The dates from San Francisco are one day later than our last accounts.

The El Dorado was detained at Chagres two days by the non-arrival of the Panama, which ship was obliged to bear the steamer Republic company from Acapulco to Panama, the Republic being in a crippled state for the last four days.

The El Dorado has experienced heavy gales from the northwest, through which she proved herself a first rate sea boat. She left at Chagres the steamer Union, for New York, via Jamaica, to sail next day; also, the U. S. sloop-of-war Albany; Capt. Platt, which arrived on the 2d of Jan., from St. Domingo.—She was waiting orders—all well. The El Dorado has two hundred and one passengers. She brings one day's later news from San Francisco; but the papers at hand do not furnish any intelligence of special importance.

All was quiet at Chagres when the Union left. Panama papers of the 2d have been received. The steamship Republic was one month making the distance from San Francisco to Panama. The British war steamer, Driver, arrived at Panama on the 28th of December, on her way to England. The Journal estimates that there was 3,000 passengers in that city during the week. The papers contain nothing later from Chili and the southern portion of California.

The Alta California of the 16th Dec. received by this steamer, gives the following as the estimate of gold by the steamer Panama; to New York, $1,081,756; to London, $149,000; to New Orleans, $36,244; total, $1,267,300.

Three of the persons concerned in shooting Sheriff Buchanan, have been arrested and confined at Marysville.

The Sonora Herald is of opinion that the miners generally in the vicinity of Union Creek are doing well. The steamer Constitution was to leave San Francisco on the 23d of December for the Sandwich Islands; she is intended as a regular packet between the two countries.

Kingston papers state that a bill for the erection of a lighthouse on Blunt Point, near the harbor of Port Royal, has been ordered to be engrossed in the Assembly.

Judge J. M. Jones of the southern district of California, died at San Jose.

At San Francisco, on the 16th December, in consequence of the cessation of supplies of flour from the Atlantic ports and Valparaiso, holders were putting up prices.

Madison, Jan. 22.

Petitions for the Maine Law pouring into the Assembly.

Mr. Sholes presented a resolution granting the use of the Hall to S. D. Hastings, and others, to present views in favor of the Maine Liquor Law this evening.

Messrs. Hoyt, Skinner, Sholes, and Donaldson spoke in favor, and Messrs. Cate and Conger against.

The resolution was carried. Ayes 41, noes 20.

The use of the Hall was given to the surviving members of the first Convention, on Monday evening next.

A resolution asking of Congress a grant of Fort Winnebago Reserve, for Fox River Improvement, was carried.

Bill for Drainage of Swamp Lands, read twice and referred.

Mr. Lewis introduced a joint resolution of sympathy with the Irish exiles

Mr. Giles moved to lay on the table.—20 to 20.

An amusing debate ensued as to the object of the member in writing the resolution.

Mr. Sholes offered an amendment requesting the interposition of Government in favor of the oppressed the world over. Carried—ayes 44, noes 19.

Mr. Knoll moved an amendment requesting the President to send agents to the different foreign States, to learn the amount of suffering.

Mr. Hackett moved to lay the whole subject on the table. Lost—ayes 9, noes 54.

Mr. Lewis moved the previous question.—Carried.

Mr. Knoll's amendment was withdrawn, and the resolution was passed. Ayes 56, noes 7.

Select committee on the memorial of printers reported a resolution to furnish two reporters for the Madison Press, and one for the Milwaukee papers, to be paid three dollars per day.

A message from the Governor was received, stating that he had forwarded the Kossuth Resolution; also enclosing a statement from Ex-Governor Dewey, in relation to old territorial claims against the United States, which have been paid. Referred to committee on State Affairs.

Several other bills and resolutions of a local and private nature, were introduced.—Other business and business in the Senate unimportant.

Maine Liquor Law.—From all we learn from the workings of the Maine Liquor Law, it's evident that they have struck upon the true policy for the final closing up of the trade in ardent spirits in that State. All the objections that we have seen against the passage of such a law for Wisconsin don't weigh a feather. The idea that it could not be maintained would leave us to suppose that we had a French Republic instead of an American Republic. If the people are not ready to obey the laws, the sooner it is known the better.—When officers in their legitimate duty are driven by a lawless mob, then perhaps it may be said that such a law cannot be enforced in Wisconsin.

We hope the Legislature will pass just such a law. It will save a deal of regulating.—Racine Advertiser.

☞ A child froze to death at Chicago, on Monday night.

PRESENCE OF MIND.—The Syracuse Journal gives a notable instance. Several little boys were skating on Onondaga Lake, when four broke in. One little fellow pulled the tippet from his neck, threw it, and saved one of his comrades. Another off with his coat, tore it in two, and saved two others. The other lad was drowned. Few men would have done as well as the noble boys.

A Hater of Monarchs.—The man that will not wear a crown to his hat! Go up head!

The Boat of Life.

BY THOS. MOORE.

Let's take this world as some wide scene,
Through which, in frail but buoyant boat,
With skies now rude and now serene,
Together thou and I must float:
Beholding oft, on either shore,
Bright spots where we should love to stay;
But Time plies swift his flying oar,
And on we speed—away, away.

Should chilling winds and rain come on,
We'll raise our awning 'gainst the shower—
Sit closer till the storm is gone,
And smiling wait a sunnier hour.
And if that sunnier hour should shine,
We'll know its brightness cannot stay,
And, happy while 'tis thine and mine,
Complain not when it fades away.

Thus reach we both, at last, that fall,
Down which life's currents all must go—
The dark, the brilliant, destined all
To sink into the void below:
Nor e'en that hour shall want its charms,
If side by side still fond we keep,
And calmly in each other's arms
Together linked, go down the steep.

Big Stories.

A company of great story tellers had assembled one evening in the bar-room of a tavern out west, and some astonishing narratives—real "whoppers"—had been given for sure facts. At length, when the imaginations of the narrators of these tales began to fail them, somebody called on a quiet young man, who sat gravely in a corner, for a story.

"Oh," said he candidly, "I havn't any thing to say. I might tell a story, but nothing to compare with that just told."

However the company insisted, and the young man began:

"The adventure I am about to relate is somewhat singular, but it will not surprise you after what you have heard. I was once skating on a very smooth and extensive piece of ice, and having excellent skates on my feet, I almost flew, indeed, so great was my velocity, that I did not see an air-hole in my way, but dropped into it, like a bar of lead, and had my head shaved clean off my shoulders by the sharp ice.

This assertion made a great laugh, and some one asked the young man how many times his head would bear shaving off.

"Hear me out," he said gravely. "You remember, I said I was going very swiftly, and that the day was exceedingly cold. My body then, with its acquired velocity, went under the ice, as fast as my head moved over it, coming to another air-hole, up popped my body, and down dropped my head and froze in the exact position I would have desired.—So you see, I had my head cut off and put on again without the least exertion on my part."

"Lucky!"

"But this is not the end of the adventure. On my return home, I sat by the fire, relating my wonderful escape, when my neck beginning to thaw, I undertook to blow my nose, and threw my head—chuck!—behind the back-log!"

"And what then!"

"Nothing," repeated the narrator, gravely, feeling of his neck, "only my head, I believe, hasn't stuck quite as well since!"

It is needless to say that this was the last big story told that night in the country tavern.

The Dutch Counterfeit Detecter.—The other day a gentleman, went into a German grocery on Clark Street, to get a $1.00 of the Wisconsin Marine and Fire Insurance Co.' changed. The Dutchman had heard of $5 bills being altered from ones to fives, he took the bill the gentleman offered him and held it up to the light.

"What are you doing that for?" he enquired.

"I vish to she if dish bill have been altered from a $5," said the Dutchman.

Worthy of Nicholas Biddle decidedly!—Chicago Adv.

Sunday Christians.—"Bless you! I've thought of it many a time when I've seen a church emptying itself into the street. Look here, suppose there's a crowd of people—a whole mob of 'em going down the church steps. And at the church door there is, I don't know how many rods of Christian earrings, with griffins painted on the panels, and swords and battle-axes, that as well as I can remember Christ recommended nowhere; and there's the coachmen, half asleep, trying to look religious, and there's the footmen following some, and carrying the Holy Bible after their misus, just as to-morrow they'll carry a spaniel—and that's what they call humanity. Well, that's a pleasant sight, isn't it? And them, who are not shamed to carry their own prayer books, with the gold leaves twinkling in the sun, as if they took pains in telling the world they'd been to church—well how many of them had been there in earnest? How many of them go there with no thought whatsoever only that it's Sunday—church-going day? And so they put on what they think is religion that day, just as I put on a clean shirt.

Bless you! sometimes I've stood and watched the crowd, and I've said to myself, 'well, I should like to know how many of you will be christians till next week? How many of you will go to-morrow morning to your offices and counting houses, and stand behind your counters, and all in the way of business—all to scramble up the coin—forget you are miserable sinners, while everything you do makes you more miserable, only you never feel it, so long as it makes you more rich?' And so there's a Sunday conscience like a Sunday coat, and folks who'd get on in the world put the coat and conscience carefully by, and only wear 'em once a week. Well, to think how many such folks go to worship—why then I must say it, Master Capstick, to stand inside of a church and watch a congregation coming out, however you may stare, may be—I can't help after my fashion thinking so—a melancholy sight indeed. Lord love you! when we see what some people do all the week—people who are staunch at church, remember—I can't help thinking there's a good many poor souls who are only Christians at morning and afternoon service."—Charles Dickens.

GEN. HOUSTON ON THE RED MAN.—In his lecture on the American Indians, recently delivered at Hartford, Conn., Gen. Houston claimed, that in the contests of the Indians with the whites, the latter were almost always the aggressors, and said the Indians as a body never broke their treaty. A single Indian, or two or three combined, might sometimes kill a white man for plunder; but in such cases, an appeal to the chief would secure the surrender of the murderers. He said the Government was now expending six millions of dollars annually to preserve peace with the Indians on the frontiers of Texas, New Mexico, &c. It was mostly useless. He would guarantee to keep peace through the whole line for one hundred thousand dollars a year. Gen. Houston complains that the Indians are cheated and wheedled into treaties by designing men. The whole lecture was an eulogy on the Indian character, and was highly honorable to General Houston.

It is said that the nutmeg is indigenous in California.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A FORTUNE.

FOR SALE,

THE NEW AND WELL-KNOWN

HORICON GRIST MILL,

And the Property connected with it, of

ABOUT SIXTY ACRES OF LAND,

WHICH is surveyed into VILLAGE LOTS, on which there are two good DWELLING-HOUSES, convenient to the business of the town. The Mill is in successful operation, and is prepared to do good custom and merchant work.

The village of HORICON is located on Rock River, at the foot of Lake Horicon, in Dodge county, in this State, in one of the richest and most fertile portions of Wisconsin. Its WATER POWER is equal, if not superior, to any one in the State, and is capable of driving any amount of Machinery. Horicon has advantages that no other point in the country possesses, it being the nearest place to touch at from all the northwestern travel. The

Milwaukee and Lisbon Plank Road

is located to this town—is graded 22 miles, and planked 18 miles west of Milwaukee. The Union Valley Rail-Road,

from Fond du Lac to Janesville, runs through the place, and is selected as one of the points for a Depot. The site of the village is one of the most beautiful and romantic in the entire State. It was the home, thirty-two years ago, of the celebrated Indian war chief, BLACK HAWK. The place is growing fast, and is situated between the heavy timbered oak openings and prairie lands. The timbered lands afford plenty of LUMBER and TIMBER for all the surrounding country.

HORICON contains about three hundred inhabitants. There are four Stores, two Taverns, two Saw-Mills, three Cooper Shops, two Waggon Maker's Shops, two Cabinet Shops, one Machine Shop, two Tailor Shops, and two Shoemaker Shops.

The attention of Millers and Capitalists is invited to this property.

☞ TERMS MADE EASY.

☞ For further information, enquire of P. YALE, Milwaukee, or of the subscribers, on the premises.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION.
This valuable work, has just arrived at
C. OTT'S BOOKSTORE.
It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:
"This admirable work is at length before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matters of which it treats."—Truth Teller. april 22

1851. 1851.
EAGLE STEAM POWER FOUNDRY,
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.
TURTON & SERCOMB, Proprietors.
RESPECTFULLY beg to inform their friends and the public generally, that they manufacture all kinds of Cast and Wrought Iron Work, for Grist and Saw Mills. Also, all kinds of Machinery, at their well known establishment, Nos 298 and 300 West Water street
They are themselves both practical mechanics, the one a pattern maker of twenty years' experience, The other a moulder of thirty years' experience.—they likewise employ none but the very best workmen that can be obtained.
Their stock of patterns cannot be equalled—they have all been made in this city, expressly for the wants of this State—they can and will do better work than any similar establishment in this State, and on the shortest notice. June 20, 1851.

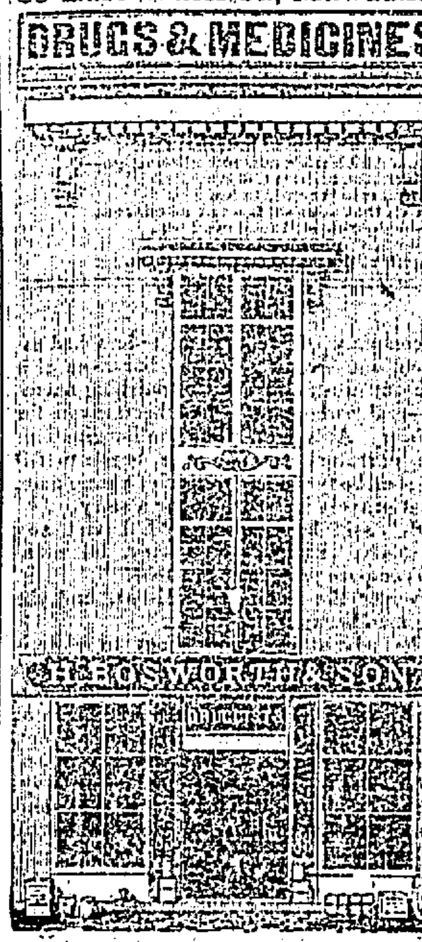

CHICAGO BRASS AND BELL FOUNDRY.
H. W. RINCKER,
NO. 108 RANDOLPH STREET, CHICAGO,
Also on Canal street, opposite Foss' Planing Mill.
THE Proprietor of this establishment is now prepared to cast bells of all sizes. He would particularly invite those who wish to purchase Church Bells, to those of his manufacture. His bells will be sold on as reasonable terms as they can be purchased from the east, or from agents of eastern establishments. They will be sold cheaper in fact, because he can make as good a bell, that will give as large a volume of sound as those of eastern manufacture, with one-fourth less weight of metal, and this proportion of money is thus saved in the purchase of his bells. He warrants them not to break for one year with proper usage, and should one fail or not prove to be as good as represented, it may be returned to his shop, and be made good without expense to the purchaser, by a re-cast; or be replaced by a new one. If one should break any time during his life, he will re-cast it for half the expense of casting. Western people will see the advantage in dealing with a western man, and patronizing western interests.
Mr Rincker is a German, a bell founder by profession, and he is confident that he thoroughly understands his business.
He will cast bells to any key or tone that may be desired; he can also cast his bells to chime in harmony. Heretofore the chiming bells used in this country have been brought from Europe; but he is able to make them as correct and musical in tone as any that may be imported.
His bells have taken the premiums at the two last Fairs of the Chicago Mechanics' Institute—the last Fair awarding him a gold medal. The following is the copy of the report of the committee on the bell submitted for inspection to the Fair of May, 1850:
Article 11, Class No 6, Church Bells
A bell of 740 pounds, by H W Rincker, of this city, is well made and a smooth casting. It exhibits a great degree of skill in its manufacture; has an admirable tone and throws a greater volume of sound than any bell of its size; a trial was had between the above bell and one manufactured by Mr Meneely, of Troy, N Y, the latter being considerably the heavier of the two—955 pounds. The arrangement for ringing Mr Rincker's bell was temporary and by far inferior to that of Mr Meneely's, notwithstanding which we believe that there was but little difference in the distance that the two bells could be heard, and that the tone of Mr Rincker's bell was, by far, the most pleasing to the ear. A Gold Medal was awarded to Mr Rincker.
The above is a true copy of the Report.
G R SLOAT, Secretary
Board Directors Chicago Mechanics Institute
Mr Rincker is also prepared to do all kinds of Brass work, casting and furnishing, on short notice and in good style, such as machinery, magnetic machines, physical instruments, soda fountains, beer pumps, stop-cocks, oil globes, etc. etc.
Also heavy Copper work for all purposes.
Old Brass and Copper purchased, and taken in exchange for bells, at the market prices.
Chicago, 1851

GRECIAN FANCHERONIAN DROPS.
A sure and safe remedy for, and will positively cure Sick Headache, Chills and Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Sea Sickness, Cholera, and Cholera Infantum, and restore a healthy action to the liver, without a particle of calomel, mercury, quinine or morphine entering into their compound. They do not purport to be a remedy for all manner of diseases that flesh is heir to, but experience warrants us in saying the above they will positively cure. They will also correct all derangement of the stomach, and relieve from those aches and pains throughout the system commonly called rheumatism. It is an excellent remedy for the Gravel, and as a Vermifuge or Worm medicine there is none better.
Prepared only by Dr J S FANCHER, 140 Fulton street, New York, a few doors from Broadway.

HEALTH IS WEALTH.
THE GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S
UNRIVALLED and universally used Medicines, have long received the approbation and patronage of those in pursuit of Health. If there are any who do not know their virtues, or doubt their efficacy, it is only requested that they will make a trial of them. The Company would call the attention of the Public to the innumerable Certificates (unbought) from the most responsible men, (including many names among the regular Faculty,) which they preserve on file at their office.
These Standard Medicines may be found at wholesale or retail, at the office of the Northwestern Agency.
23 WISCONSIN STREET, MILWAUKEE,
and in every Town and Village in the State.
☞ They may be depended upon with the utmost confidence. ☜
The following series have been before the community for more than five years, and are compounded from ingredients which have been thoroughly tested by scientific chemists:
The Græfenberg Dysentery Syrup.
This extraordinary article is a speedy and infallible remedy in diarrhœa, bloody flux, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, and the Asiatic cholera, and should be taken with the first symptoms, viz: vomiting and diarrhœa. Now is the season for its use, and it should be in every family, ready for any emergency. It is purely vegetable, and harmless in itself, and never fails to cure the worst cases, and generally in a few hours.
The Græfenberg Vegetable Pills,
Are particularly valuable for the prevention and cure of Fevers in general, all Bilious and Liver Complaints, general debility, sick headache, dyspepsia, heart burn, costiveness, and in fine, for all ordinary family uses. To their great virtues, thousands of families in this State have testified.
The Græfenberg Green Mountain Ointment,
As a pain extractor, cannot be excelled. For the cure of burns, wounds, sprains, sores, rheumatism, and outward affections of all kinds, it knows no rival. Its power to relieve pain and reduce inflammation, gives it a distinguishing feature over all other Ointment.
MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON,
May, without exaggeration, be termed one of the most extraordinary Medicines of the age. Its cures of the distressing ills incident to Females, have been most useful and gratifying. It is prepared by Dr. Theo. Pomeroy, of Utica, and no ill effect can result from its use, and a cure is certain in most cases. None who are afflicted should be prevented, from motives of delicacy, from giving it a thorough trial, in cases of Prolapsis Uteri. All who have used it, unhesitatingly pronounce it the greatest boon which has been given the sex.
The other Græfenberg Medicines are the Eye Lotion, Health Bitters, Consumptive Balm, Children's Panacea, Fever & Ague Pills, Libby's Pile Ointment, Sarsaparilla Compound.
The Græfenberg Manual of Health,
A complete hand-book of Medicine, for families, containing 300 pages. Price 25 cents—emphatically the most valuable book of the day. Should be a volume for reference in the library of every family.
☞ Full directions go with the Græfenberg Medicines, a constant supply of which may be always found at the Company's Agency,

A NEW ARTICLE!
JOHNSON'S CHEMICAL
HAIR INVIGORATOR,
To prevent baldness, and to restore the hair that has fallen off or become thin, and to cure effectually Scurf or Dandruff.
Prepared only by S. JOHNSON, Jr, 151 East Water street, Milwaukee.
FOR THE TOILET.
THE Invigorator is considered infinitely better than oil or grease for the hair, and is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture for the hair, never before attained, yet free from animal grease or essential oils. It clears the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c, which free the hair, thereby preventing baldness and gray hair, entirely frees the skin from scurf, dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and keeps it so; will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft, healthy, glossy state; also imparts to it a darker color, and the free use of it will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxuriant state until the latest period of life.
Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the Toilet; both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator, can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation for a good head of hair. nov24
